

Presence of Arkon Flow Systems, s.r.o. at industry fairs 2023-2024

Annotation

The subject of project is participation of Arkon Flow Systems, s.r.o. at international trade fairs. Participations on international trade fairs is a big contribution mainly due to orientation on foreign export markets.

The main interest is also support and long-term development of business partnerships with foreign partners.

Objective

The objective of project is applicant's development at planned markets in regions, strengthening current business partnerships, finding new long-terms business partners and and identification of direct business opportunities.

Result

The result is a presence at 2 international trade fairs.

This project from Operational Program Technology and Applications for Competitiveness is supported by the European Union.

Co-funded by the European Union

